DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-24 and 26-28 are allowed over the prior art.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Applicant has claimed uniquely distinct features a method in a computing environment for configuring images for display, the method comprising: positioning, on a coordinate system, said first component image and said second component image, wherein positioning comprises accessing a table having pairs of identifiers that are incompatibles and based on the first and second identifiers traversing the table to determine whether said first component image and said second component images are compatible, and creating a configured image said configured image including said first component and said second component.

The closest prior art of Bornstein and Quintero discloses a conventional of generating a two-dimensional image of an article of clothing superimposed on an image of a person; either singularly or in combination fail to anticipate or render the above underline limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
